She also sets up in answer to the complaint in the suit brought by her husband that since he ro a decree by delault he has married again. She also repudiates the charges in the complaint, and asks leave to be showed to come in and defend the divorce suit. On the other hand it was claimed by Mr. Peter Mitchell and Adolph Cohen, who appeared for Mr. Bloch, that about nine years ago the defendant abandoned him in Russian Poinad and came to this country, where her husband found her and requested her to live with him again. This she relosed to so, saying she could get a better man; but, when san discovered that her husband had accumulated some money, she sted him for abandonment. This suit was not successful and she commenced another action against him for absolute divorce, which interests in however, she subsequently discontinued. In the meantime Mr. Bloch had not been idle, and, having collected his proofs, brought the present action against her. Mr. Birthell contended that the decree which was obtained by Mr. Bloch must have been known by the defendant, as it was published in the Herald and German papers. Judge Daly, after hearing the argument, took the papers, reserving his decision. George E. Loucks commenced some time ago a suit for alverce against his wife, Jonaie E. Loucks, on the ground of alleged adultery. In his complaint be states that they were married on the 8th of Fournary, 1875; that the deciendant committed adultery with Widnam Couklin at or near Peekshil, and also with Philip Chapp. The offendant answered, denying the charges and setting up counter charges of adultery on the part of the plaintiff. The case was sont to a refere, who reported in layor of the defendant. A motion to confirm the report was yesterday denied by Judge J. F. Daiy in the Court of Common Pleas.

Jane Siggreaves says that she was married to Joseph Siggreaves in August, 1875, and that they lived together till about a year ago, when he lett her and went to Manchester, England, where he is hiving with another woman. Judge Doybure yesterday granted an order directing service of the summons by publication.

A soit brought by Emily B. Holden against her husband, James Holden, to have their marriage annulied, was yesterday referred by Judge Donohue to Hugh Dono. Ily.

In the Walker divorce suit there was argued at some length yesterday before Judge Donohue a metion to vacate an order of reference to B. C. Chitwood to take the testimony of Jossan Walker, a son of Dr. Walker, as to proprietary rights. Judge Donohue denied the motion and ordered the testimony to be taken. Mr. Daniel T. To John Jacob Astor there was convoyed the land between high water mark and West street, between Leroy and King streets, with the understanding that he should construct West street and keep it in repair. There was also conveyed to him the wharfage of the buikhead line, opposite his property, between the streets named. The plaintiffs in the present souts claim damages through this grant to John Jacob Astor, In 1871 the Dock Department was authorized by the Legislature to make a new plan of the Hudson River front, and pursuant to this plan they widened West street from 70 to 250 feet and extended the piers beyond the original bulkhead line. The complaints in the suits in question set forth that, while the city under the act of 1871 has purchased the rights of other owners to wharves and bulkheads along the North River, in this case the city has undertaken to fil in to the new bulkhead line, depriving them of the bulkhead and wharfage without compensation, and they ask either that the city base unjoined from filing in in front of the bulkhead. The main questions argued yesterday on stipulations as to the facts were whether in the city be enjoined from filing in in front of the bulkhead. The main questions argued yesterday on stipulations as to the facts were whether the used of 1810 to Astor gave bim any lee beyond the westerly line of West street, with the right to collect wharfage, and whether in any case he could maintain a right to the ownership of land below low water mark. Judge Van Brunt took the papers, reserving his decision. Messes, Richard S. Eminet and Thornas L. Ogden appeared for the pianniffs, and Corporation Counsel William C. Whitney and David J. Dean for the present second request, which I bettere with the county of the property has a decision to the ownership of the planniffs, and Corporation Counsel William C. Whitney and David J. When that time arrives and no cars are running another day has to be selected, and the repeated disappointments have caused a very decided uncertainty on the subject. A HERALD representative called upon Dr. Gilbert yesterday and endeavored to obtain some reliable inormstion, but that gentleman was not prepared to fix upon the exact day for the opening, as he said it was impossible for them to say. Possibly they might be able to start on June 3, but in his opinion it would be L. Ogden appeared for the plaintiffs, and Corposition Counsel William C. Whitney and David J. hoate. It explains itself, and while the Judge says it is not the result of any recent complaints, he, as a practitioner in the United States courts, is familian with methods heretofore pursued, and is evidently intent on reform. The following is the order:-

Intent on reform. The following is the order:—

The cierk or other officer of the court receiving any iees shall deriver to the party paying the same a receipted bill, showing every item included thereon, as allowed by the Revised Statutes, chapter 16, or other statute authorizing the charge, and no fees so paid shall be hereafter taxed as disbursements unless such bill of items be presented upon the taxision. some time next week. It was also not easy to say exactly how often the trains would be run, and they probably would not arrange their time table on any reliable basis until about a month after they commence. They have got the latest improved system of switching at each end of the line, and are now running occasional trains so as to test its working.

It is the intention of the company to do everything in their power toward the accommodation of the public, as in their opinion accommodation makes travel. They have now on hand sufficient rolling stock to run trains every five minutes, and before the end of next week they will have enough to run frains every three minutes. Trains will be run from ton P. M. to about one A. M. to five A. M. every hour or possibly every half hour. These night trains will probably leave up town at the bour and down town at the half hour. Nothing has as yet been settled as to the exact lares on the road, but there will be none above ton cents. Dr. Gilbert could not any whether there would be five cent cars on every train. He thought, however, that there would be more done in the way of accommodation for the public on the Gilbert Elevated road than had ever been received from any railroad before. There is also some talk about issuing excursion teckets good for certain stations on the road, and a system of commutation will also probably be arranged. At present, however, it is impossible to say what will be done, as after the road is running here probably be arranged. At present, the impossible to say what will be done, as after the road is running here probably be arranged. Dan Pacalan was brought before Commissioner Deuel for having in his possession frauculent natura lization papers issued in 1868, and on surrendering them he was discharged. James Loffey and Charles Horn were arraigned before Commissioner Davenport on similar charges. As in the first named case these men were distinged on surrendering their papers. It appears that Horn does not need his papers, as his lattier was naturalized when he was stated years of age. The rule is established that when a man becomes a naturalized enizon all his progeny who are minors, are, by force of that naturalization, civizens of the United States. ization papers issued in 1868, and on surrendering them

WABASH RAILROAD COMPANY. The case of Tysen vs. The Wabash Railroad Company, begun at Springfield, Ill., came up before Commissioner Osborn yesterday on an examination de bene esse. C. W. Hassier appeared as counsel for the plaintiff and Joseph H. Choate for the defence. Mr. George M. Gourke, cashier of the Metropolitan National Bank, of this city, was examined as to the balance to the credit of the railroad company, but being unable time to search the books and give exict testimony. Mr. Morris K. Jeaup testified that since the organization of the read he had been a director, and was now one of the Executive Committee. He could not account for the omission from the company's circular statement issued March 22, 1878, or the $200,000 paid for the redemption in December last, as twenty per cent of the Seney mortgage, nor could be say why $56,000 a year for equipments was not included. He did not know whether that amount was included in "operating expenses" or under "fixed charges." In re the settlement of the Heading suit witness and he purchased the funding actip for the company with the understanding that he should be reimbursed for any losses; he purchased it nearly at par, when the stock was selling at 85.

Fo Mr. Choate—I believe the company is capable of carrying out the funding scheme successibility.

Mr. Hassier asked how the company proposed to treat those bondholders who did not choose to lund their bonds, and Mr. Jesup replied. We hope they will come around. We propose to keep at them until they do come 12.

Mr. R. J. Mitchell, a clerk in the Metropolitan National Bank, who has charge of the coupon account, said there was no credit to that account at the bank now. He paid all funded coupons when presented, and charged them to the account of A. Rooseveit, the account being in his name.

Further hearing was adjourned to Monday next.

THE TEST EXCISE SUIT. In the case of Felix Donnelly, of Twenty-sixth street and Seventh avenue, who is charged with violating the Excise law and whose ball was forfeited before Recorder Hackett, in the Court of General Sessions, on Wednesday, owing to some mistake, ex-Judge A. J. Dittonhocier, his counsel, stated to the Court yesterday that Mr. Donnelly's absence when his case was called was the result of a misunderstanding and that his client was really anxious and willing to go to trial. Under these circumstances Recorder flacket vacaled the order of for inture and the detendant gave new bonds to appear for trial during the coming week. Judge Dittenhoeter intends to make this a test case, and, in case of conviction, it will be carried to the Court of Appeals.

SUMMARY OF LAW CASES. The Grand Jury of the United States Circuit Court, criminal branch, was sworn in yesterday, with Mr. George W. Fulier, banker, of No. 8 Wall street, as Donohue, on application of Mr. Alfred Steckler, in the case of William A. Byrne, committed by Judge Fiammer in $3,000 bail on a charge of felonious as-

Company against Richard B. Irvin, Judge Donobue yesterday granted counsel an extra allowance o $2,000. Judge Donohue says that the papers show the case to be an extraordinary one, although for made with gaitty intent O'Neil was neid in $500 ball to answer.

Marc Eiditz, receiver of the Material Building Company, submitted a petition yesterday to Judge Dononiou asking permission to sell at public auction for the benefit of the stockhelders ten first mortgage coupon bonds of the Masonic Teinple of the par value of $500 each, and also debts aggregating $5,725 37, and judgements obtained in lavor of the company amounting to $3,235 78. The petition was granted with the stippistion that proper notice be given to all interested parties.

Ever since the death of the late Mayor Havemeyer in sons and legal representatives have been engaged in a complicated and tedious litigation concerning the disposition of certain Long Island Railroad stock. The action, like most other suits at law, has been the subject of varying results and is constantly appearing in the courts in the shape of motions and counter motions, which, nowever, do not seem to make any difference in the actual status of the cose. The mater came before their Justice Curtis, in the Superior Court, Special Term, yesterday, on an order to show cause why ine defendants, John C. Havemeyer and heart flavemeyer, should not have leave to amend their respectives answers. The Court granted the motion on condition that the costs to date be paid.

Thomas Howlen, a member of the Conchmin's Begevolent Association, being about to visit Europe, sent in his resignation the day before leaving. Next morning he sent his son-in-law to withdraw the resignation and pay up his dues. The latter says the association reliased to receive the dues on the ground that the resignation was not withdraw within ten days, and the dispute is as to whether this was the case. Mr. Matthew P. Breen moved before Judge Donohue yesterday morning for a mandamus to reinstat Howlen is membersing, which was opposed by C. S. Spencer, and decision was reverved.

In a low inhules thereafter the letter asking the Coroner's attention was written by myself and placed in the hands of my messenger to deposit in the General Post Office. Later along in the day I instructed two messengers to go to the Coroners' office. These two men are now known to be brothers-in-isw, and the presumption is that, contrary to my deposit in the presumption is that, contrary to my deposit in the presumption is that, contrary to my deposit in the presumption is that, contrary to my deposit in the presumption of the my act that might inculpate their relative. Menday, May 27, I sent a messenger between nine and ten o'clock in the morning with my card and a second request, which I believe was safely lodged, aince the ind reported back caseonably that he had executed my orders. Between twelve and one o'clock Monday noon the Coroner and his deputy reached the premises. Aside from the opportunities above mentioned I personally know nothing of the woman, her relatives or her friends. I heard attements which I believed justified me in withnoding the death certificate till a more public inquiry as to the cause of death was mad. I paid the druggist for the medicines prescribed, I gave my time and services as above described and called a consuling brother. I underwent the trouble and annoyances common in such cases. MONEY ON CALL EASY AT 2 A 3 PER CENT.

Under the depressing influences of a northeasterly rain storm not much was to be expected in the way of cheerfulness from Stock Exchange habitues, who grow glum with a low barometer, and are apt to vent their spleen by raiding the market. Things are, however, too strong just now for a successful experi-ment of this nature, and it was not attempted. The most unlavorable report that can be made of to-day's affairs is that the market lapsed into more than ordimary inactivity, prices fluctuated drowsily and transnotions were restricted. There was considerable of a landaronade at the opening and prices advanced quickly, but moderately, in all the leading stocks, and the impression conveyed was that the buils were to be treated to a field day. Before noon, however, the flourish of trumpets had blown out and the rost of the session was passed under the influence of dulness and at the expense of a lower scale of prices. Almost the only exception was Erie, which advanced to 15%, with a large business, the stock being stimu-lated by favorable advices from London. Except to a linguist it was difficult to comprehend the ins and outs of the movement here, as dealings were pretty much entirely carried on in the German dislect, which, although it excluded the operator versed only in the vernacular, still led to the conclusion that our friends All av., b. w. corner of 75th s'. 25, "x100; same to asme. b. w. corner of 75th s'. 25, "x100; same to asme. c. asm. c. asme. c. asme. c. asme. c. asme. c. asm. c. from Faderland were the chief buyers. There was a good deal less suap to the grangers to-day and less dry nursing of prices, the Sarry Gamps of the movement keeping aloof, probably from be-ing busied with preparations for their Chicago visit. As this visit is made with special reference to the Northwest election upon the 6th of June, and necessitating the departure of several of our most active speculators, the market is likely to experience a period of sackcloth and ashes pending their absence. Pacific Mail made no sign except that of a growing weakness, and the rest of the list continued in its old condition of firmness, which is the best that can be said for it, for to-day, at least. From outside the Stock Exchange comes the one important financial item of the day-to wit, the subscription by the Syndicate to the remaining $15,000,000 of 4% per cent bonds. This completes the $50,000,000 contracted for by the Syndicate, just time, and its consummation is at once a handsome compliment to the national credit and a reasonable
